PURPOSE OF THE REQUEST

Clarification of regulation

If we drive through the pit lane (for other purpose than a penalty) does this reset the stint time or should we consider the stint time is reset only after a limited time full pit stop?

COMMENTS (TO BE COMPLETED BY THE COMMITTEE)

Article 13.1.1 of the Asian Le Mans Series Sporting Regulation clearly states that “driving time will be measured without taking pit time into account.” The only exception for the driving time in the pit lane to be considered as driving time is if the Safety Car has to bring all cars through the pit lane, and if you are not performing a pit stop at that moment.
