APPLICABLE REGULATION

Article 15.3.3  2023-2024 Asian Le Mans Series Sporting Regulations

DECISION

The Asian Le Mans Series committee will correct the following:

15.3.3 Competitors eligible to score points

- Only those competitors appearing on the official list of season entries are entitled to score points for the Series titles.
- "Team" classifications will be established taking into account each car entered for the season.
- "Additional cars", as defined by Article 3.2.6 4 of these regulations, will not be allowed to score points for the Championship titles, but will retain their place in the classification at the end of each Serie Competition, while being "invisible" for the various classifications.
- In general, any car which is taking part in a Serie Competition but is not officially registered for it will keep its classification at the end of each Competition in which it takes part but will not score points for the various titles in the Championship and will be "invisible" in these various classifications.
