Article 11.2.3 states: “Showing of the green flag: start of the formation lap behind the Leading Car”

“The formation lap” suggests that there will be 1 formation lap. Since Tyre heaters have also been banned in ELMS and WEC, 2 formation laps have been used to allow the drivers to generate some tyre temperature before the start of the race.

Could you please confirm if 1 or 2 formation laps will be carried out? And if it is 2 laps, will the race time be started at the end of the first lap as described in art. 11.2.7?
